Please carefully review your return and the attached engagement letter. We have prepared your return, however we did not independently verify the information you furnished. Business Tax Engagement Letter

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement for the year ended September 30, 2019 and to clarify the nature and extent of the tax services I will provide.

I will prepare your 2018 federal and, upon your request, state income tax returns. I am under no duty to review the information you provide to determine whether you may have a filing obligation with another state. If I become aware of any other filing requirement, I will tell you of the obligation and may prepare the appropriate returns at your request as a separate engagement.

I will provide bookkeeping services I find necessary in connection with preparation of the income tax returns. I will prepare and post any adjusting entries.

You are responsible for the safeguarding of assets, the proper recording of transactions in the books of accounts, the substantial accuracy of the financial records, and the full and accurate disclosure of all relevant facts affecting the returns to me. You also have final responsibility for the tax return and, therefore, the appropriate officials should review the return carefully before an authorized officer signs and files it.

You are responsible for making all management decisions and performing all management functions; for designating an individual with suitable skill, knowledge, or experience to oversee the bookkeeping and tax services I provide; and for evaluating the adequacy and results of the services performed and accepting responsibility for such services.

You represent that the information you are supplying to me is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge and that you have disclosed to me all relevant facts affecting the returns. I may provide you with a questionnaire or other documents requesting specific information. Completing those forms will assist me in making sure you are well served for a reasonable fee. I will not verify the information you give me; however, I may ask for additional clarification of some information.

If, during my work, I discover information that affects prior-year tax returns, I will make you aware of the facts. However, I cannot be responsible for identifying all items that may affect prior-year returns. If you become aware of such information during the year, please contact me to discuss the best resolution of the issue. I will be happy to prepare appropriate amended returns as a separate engagement.

My work in connection with the preparation of the tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. The returns will be prepared solely from information provided to me without verification by me.

I may from time to time, and depending on the circumstances, use third-party service providers to assist in preparing your return, but these preparers will not make substantive decisions concerning your return. I may share your tax return information with these service providers, but remain committed to maintaining the confidentiality and security of your information. Accordingly, I maintain internal policies, procedures and safeguards to protect the confidentiality of your personal information. In addition, I will secure confidentiality agreements with all service providers to maintain the confidentiality of your information and I will take reasonable precautions to determine that they have appropriate procedures in place to prevent the unauthorized release of your confidential information to others. In the event that I am unable to secure an appropriate confidentiality agreement, you will be asked to provide your consent prior to the sharing of your confidential information with the third-party service provider. Furthermore, I will remain responsible for the work provided by any such third-party service providers.

In accordance with federal law, in no case will I disclose your tax return information to any location outside the United States, to another tax return preparer outside of my firm for purposes of a second opinion, or to any other third party for any purpose other than to prepare your return without first receiving your consent.

The Internal Revenue Service Code and regulations impose preparation and disclosure standards with noncompliance penalties on both the preparer of a tax return and on the taxpayer. To avoid exposure to these penalties, it may be necessary in some cases to make certain disclosures to you and/or in the tax return concerning positions taken on the return that don't meet these standards. Accordingly, I will discuss tax positions that may increase the risk of exposure to penalties and any recommended disclosures with you before completing the preparation of the return. If I conclude that I am obligated to disclose a position and you refuse to permit the disclosure, I reserve the right to withdraw from the engagement and you agree to compensate me for my services to the date of withdrawal.

The IRS permits you to authorize me to discuss, on a limited basis, aspects of your return for one year after the return's due date. Your consent to such a discussion is evidenced by checking a box on the return. Unless you tell me otherwise, I will check that box authorizing the IRS to discuss your return with me.

It is my policy to keep records related to this engagement for seven years. However, I do not keep any of your original records, so I will return those to you upon the completion of the engagement. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect the records for possible future use, including potential examination by governmental or regulatory agencies. By signing this engagement letter, you acknowledge and agree that upon the expiration of the seven year period, I am free to destroy my records related to this engagement.

Certain communications involving tax advice are privileged and not subject to disclosure to the IRS. By disclosing the contents of those communications to anyone, or by turning over information about those communications to the government, you may be waiving this privilege. To protect this right to privileged communication, please consult with me or your attorney prior to disclosing any information about my tax advice. Should you decide that it is appropriate for me to disclose any potentially privileged communication, you agree to provide me with written, advance authority to make that disclosure.

Should I receive any request for the disclosure of privileged information from any third party, including a subpoena or IRS summons, I will notify you. In the event you direct me not to make the disclosure, you agree to hold me harmless from any expenses incurred in defending the privilege, including, by way of illustration only, my attorney's fees, court costs, outside adviser's costs, or penalties or fines imposed as a result of your asserting the privilege or your direction to me to assert the privilege.

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on a tax return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of a tax examination, I will be available, upon request, to represent you. However, such additional services are not included in the fees for the preparation of the tax returns.

My fees for tax services will be based on the complexity of the issues involved and the amount of time required to prepare your return. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation.

In the event of any dispute related in any way to my services, my firm and you agree to discuss the dispute and, if necessary, to promptly mediate in a good faith effort to resolve all disputes. We will agree on a mediator, but if we cannot, either of us may apply to the District Court, Eighth Judicial District, in and for Goshen County, Wyoming, which court shall have jurisdiction over all of us and matters relating to my services which are performed in Wyoming, for appointment of a mediator. We will share the mediator's fees and expenses equally, but otherwise will bear our own attorneys' fees and mediation cost. Participation in such mediation shall be a condition precedent to either of us initiating litigation but if either party fails or refuses to mediate in good faith, the other party may then initiate litigation. In order to allow time for the mediation, any applicable statute of limitations shall be tolled for a period not to exceed 120 days from the date either of us first requests in writing to mediate the dispute. The mediation shall be confidential in all respects, as allowed or required by law, except our final settlement positions at mediation shall be admissible in litigation solely to determine the prevailing party's identity for purposes of the award of attorney's fees.

I have the right to withdraw from this engagement, at my discretion, if you don't provide me with any information I request in a timely manner, refuse to cooperate with my reasonable requests or misrepresent any facts. My withdrawal will release me from any obligation to complete your return and will constitute completion of our engagement. You agree to compensate me for my time and out-of-pocket expenses through the date of my withdrawal.

If the foregoing correctly sets forth your understanding of our tax engagement, please sign this letter in the space below and return it to my office. If you disagree with any of these terms, please notify me immediately.

I appreciate this opportunity to work with you. If you have any questions or need additional information, please call me.

Sincerely,

Chenda Suleischoar, CPA
